

Australian Property Institute Board Election

Gregory Preston has nominated for the Australian Property Journal Board Elections. If you are eligible to vote, Greg would appreciate your endorsement of his candidacy.

Voting for the new four Australian Property Institute Directors has officially launched.

As the COVID-19 effects on the economy and real estate markets continue to play out, Gregory Preston is seeking election to the API Board to work with the API directors in strategy development and implementation to manage the impacts of the pandemic economy for the benefit of API members and its external stakeholders.

Whilst Gregory Preston has been actively involved with the API throughout his career, he is focused on the future of the property professions. He has previously held positions as NSW and National President and has been awarded:- the API Meritorious Service Award for co-authoring the original RMM; Life Fellowship; and was the inaugural winner of the Alfred Clifford Catt award for service to the API in 2018. He also currently sits on the API complaints committee.

Gregory Preston was National President of the API in 2007-2008 when the GFC hit, and he also represented the API in regular discussions with ASIC and APRA on valuation related issues that impacted the economy and members of the API during the GFC.

He also has a modern approach to board governance with corporate social responsibility, wellness, and diversity front of mind.

Greg is also a proponent of modern active cities which require people occupying buildings to function and is enthusiastic about emerging building service technologies (#PropTech) aimed at getting people back into buildings in the COVID influenced world, but he also acknowledges the benefits of a flexible workplace.
